SPECIAL EVENTS

HOMECOMING '70

Marist	18
St. Pat's	12

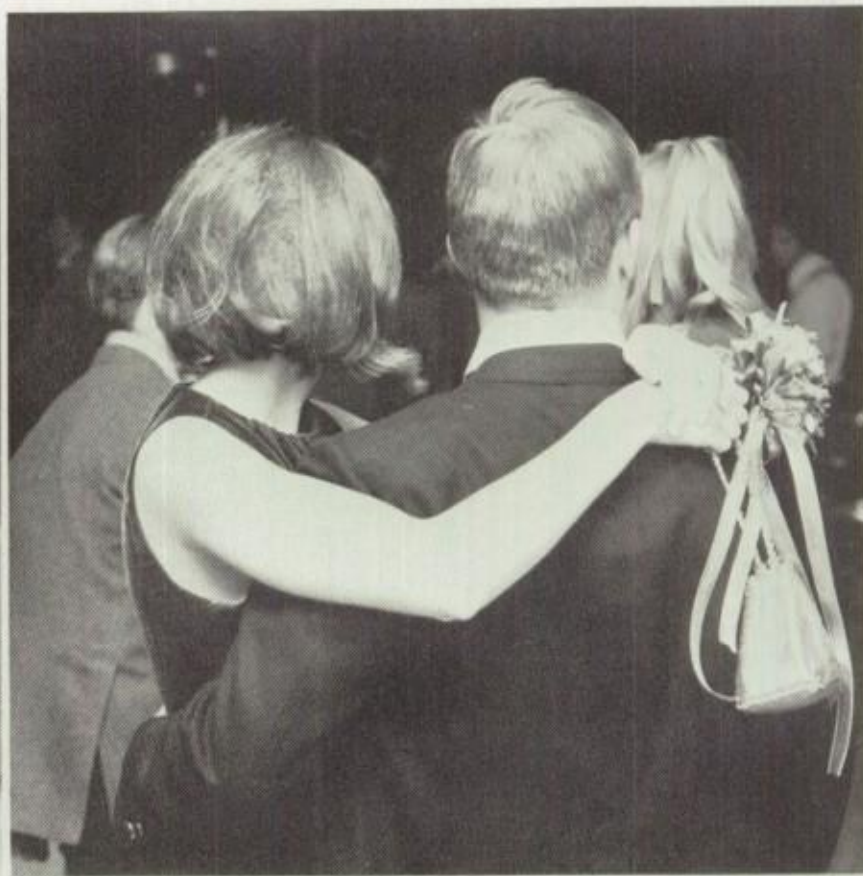

Shattering tradition with confident efficiency, Marist's very own "Big Red Machine" shocked arch-rival St. Patrick's 18-12 on Saturday, October 24 to highlight this year's homecoming weekend. More than 3,000 Marist supporters saw the game, and an ecstatic throng engulfed the victors who defeated St. Pat's for the first time in school history. Inspired by the Redskin conquest, couples celebrated at the homecoming dance that evening. Br. Thomas Kirkman set the tone for the evening by welcoming everyone to the "Marist victory dance." Then the queen, Joanne Dukendorf, the date of Charles Tokar, and her court led the 380 couples in dancing to this year's theme "Close to You." The Tellstars provided great musical entertainment until 11:30. Many faculty members were present and the football coaching staff was honored. This was a fantastic wrap-up for the greatest homecoming weekend in Marist history.

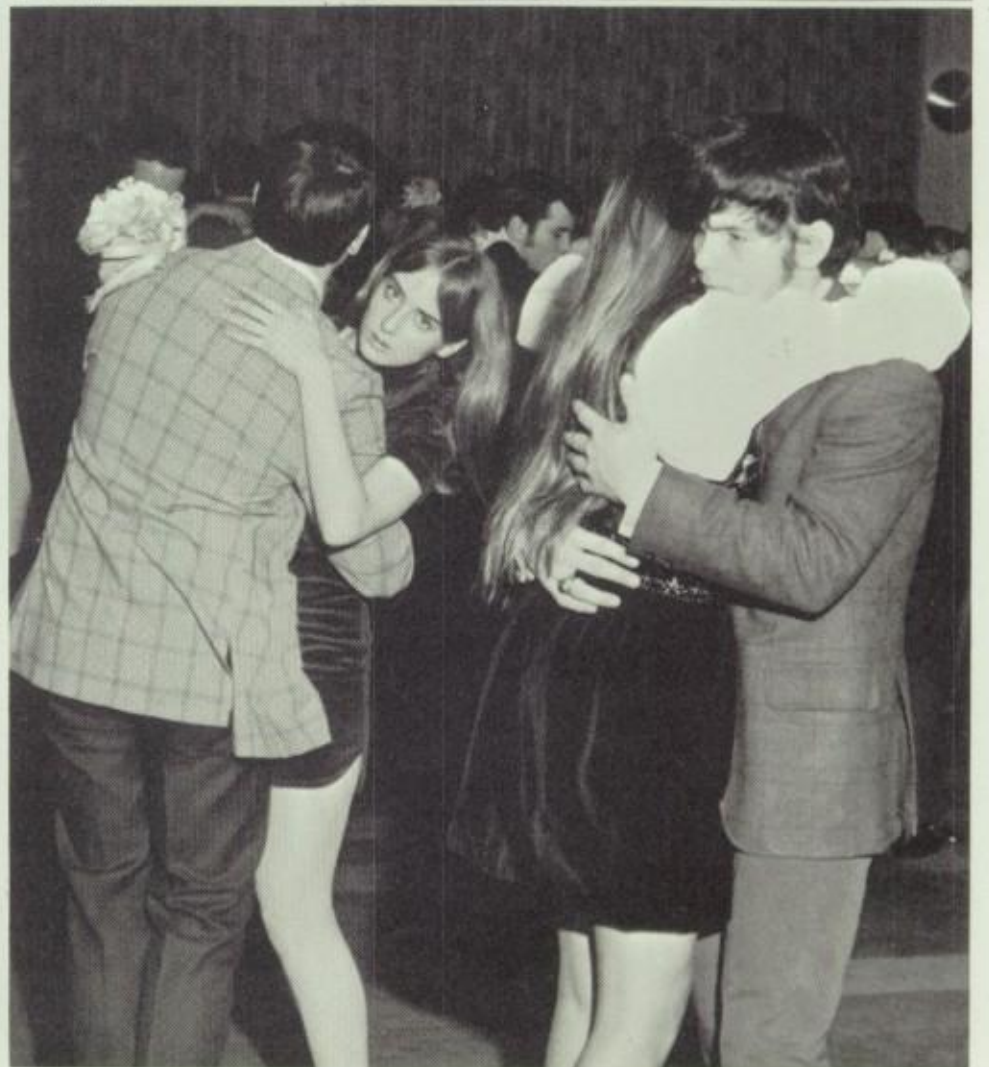

CHRISTMAS DANCE

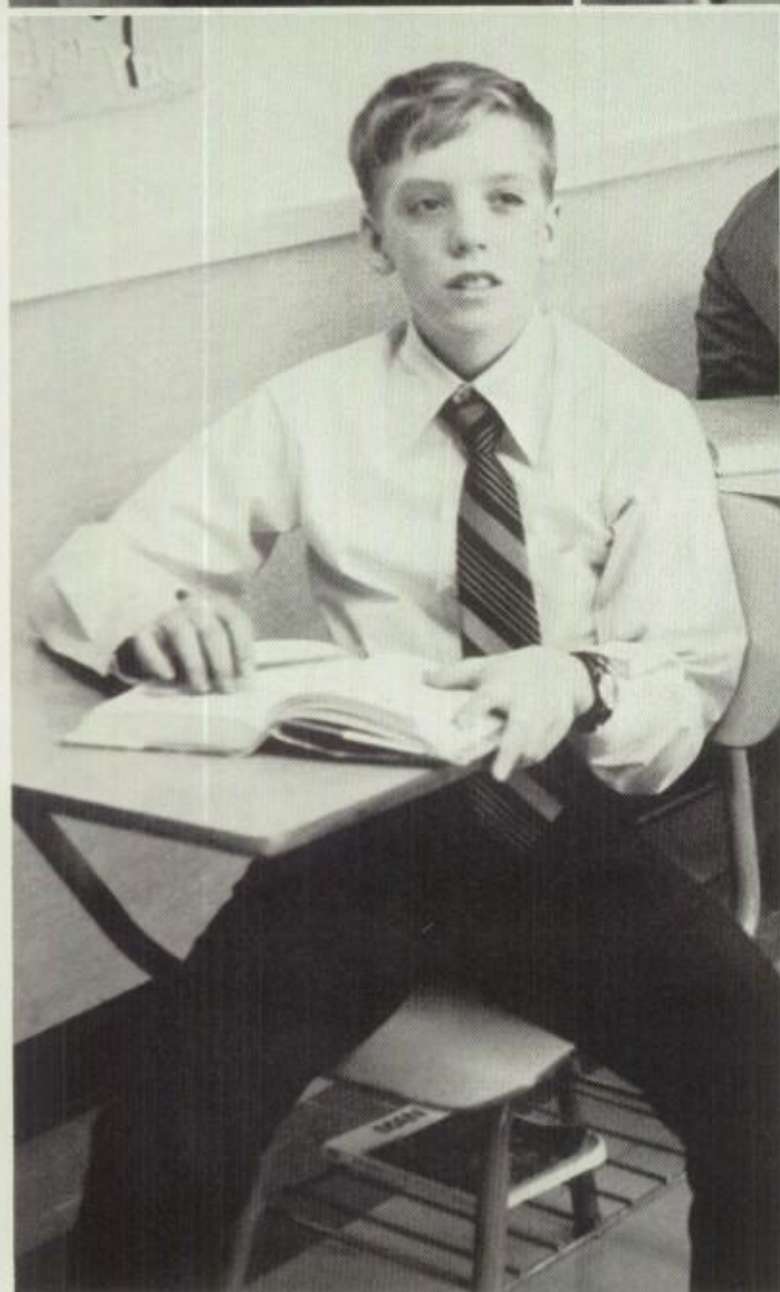

This year's Christmas Dance had the distinction of being the first one held before Christmas. Entertainment was provided by "The Chicago Fire". The festively decorated hall and cafeteria emanated a warm yuletide atmosphere. It proved to be a very enjoyable evening.

"Come into my parlor," said the spider to the fly.

"But Brother, a triangle only has three sides."

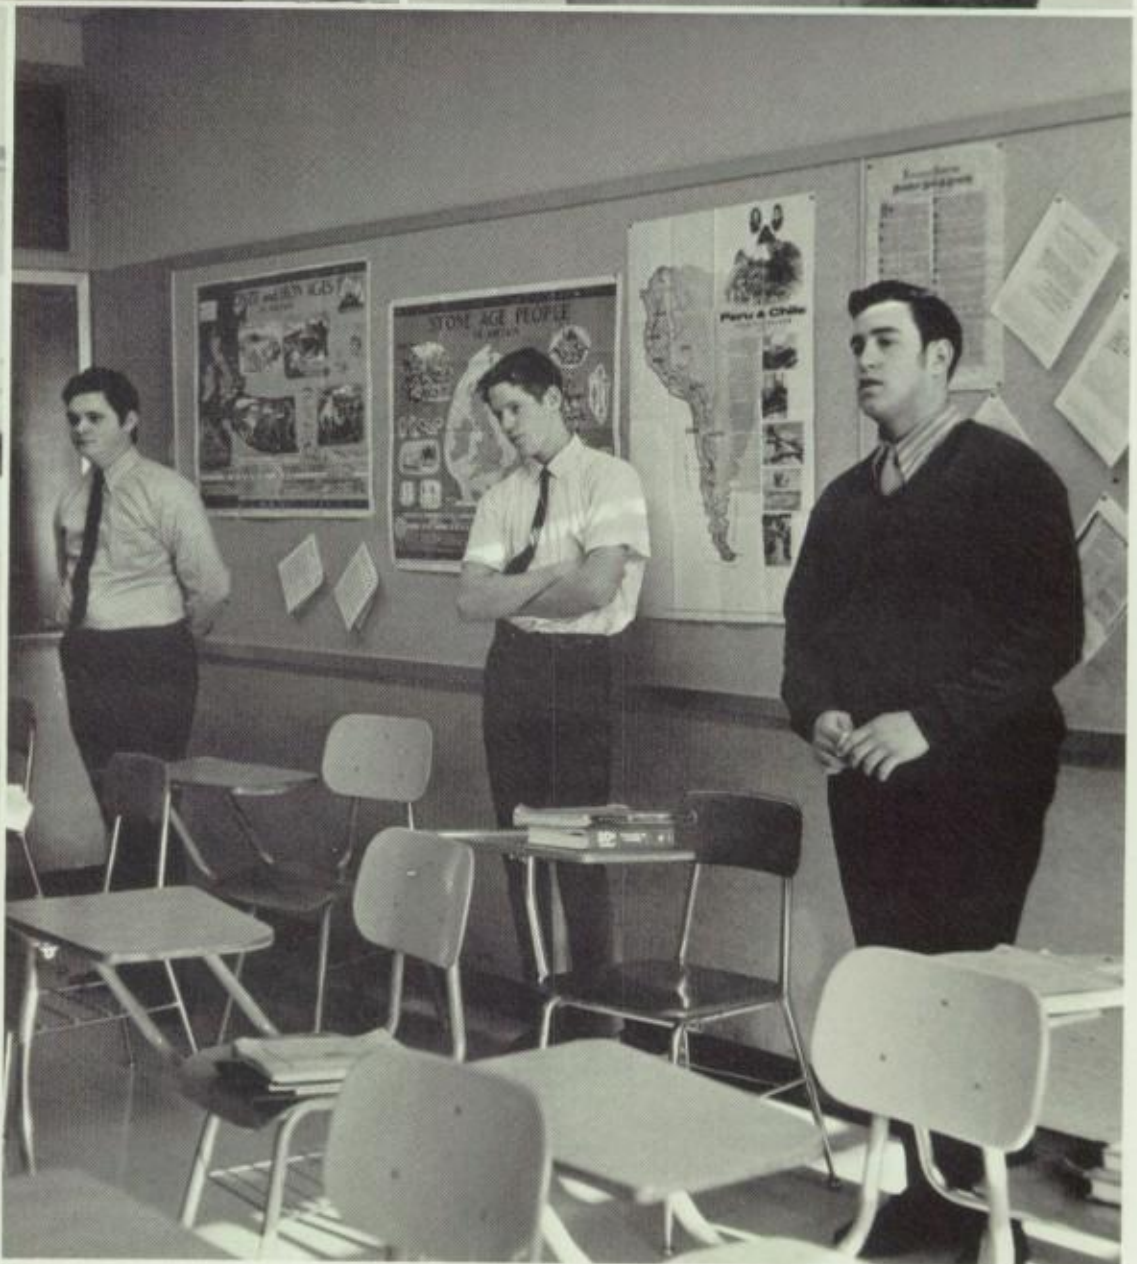

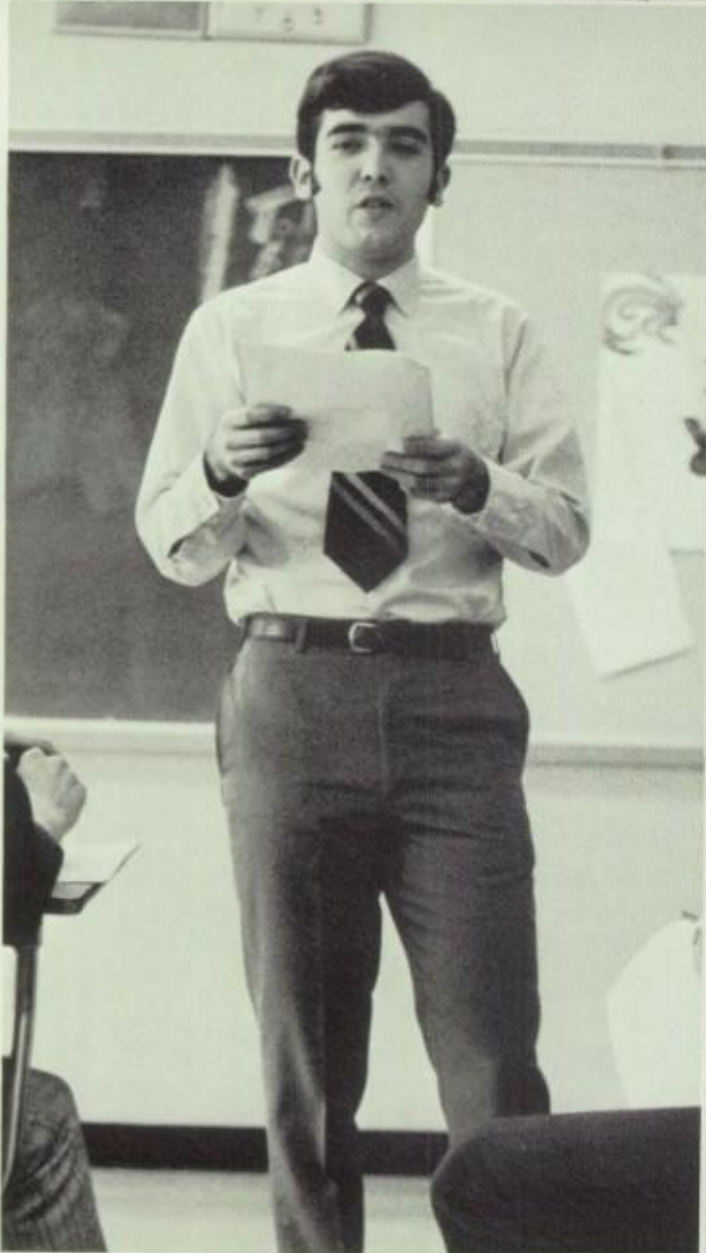

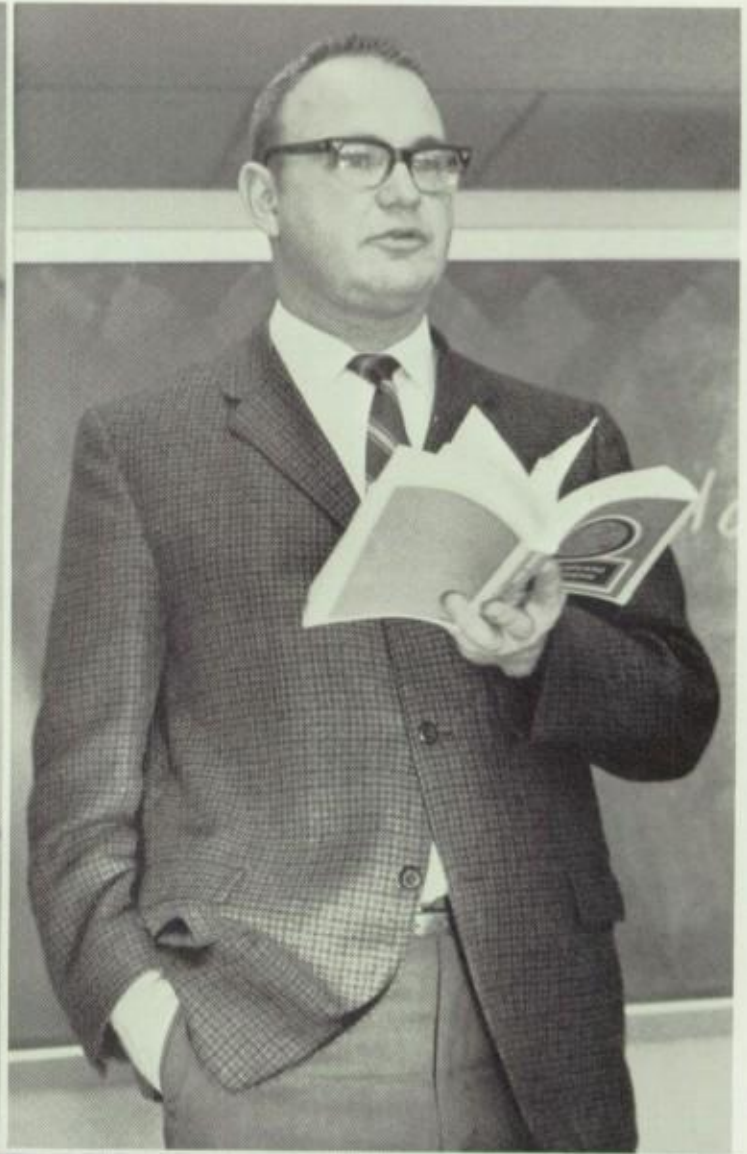

"I wish I had said that."

"Pilot to co-pilot."

"Hope this bubble gum holds . . ."

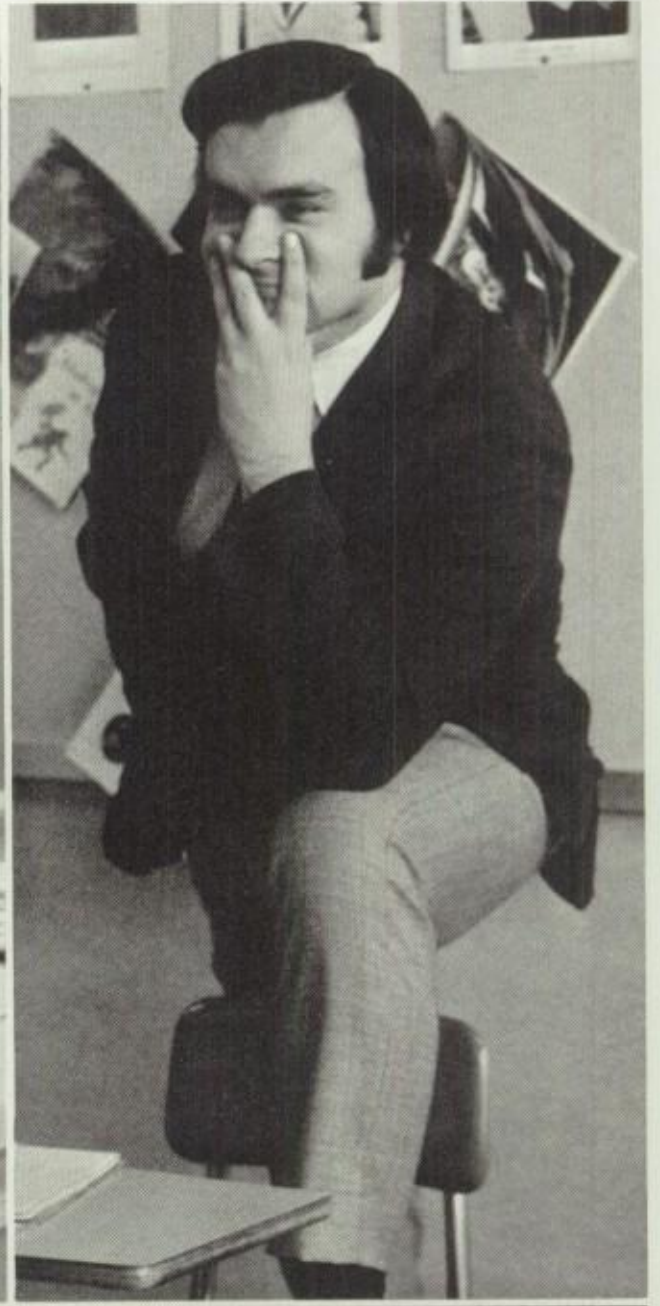

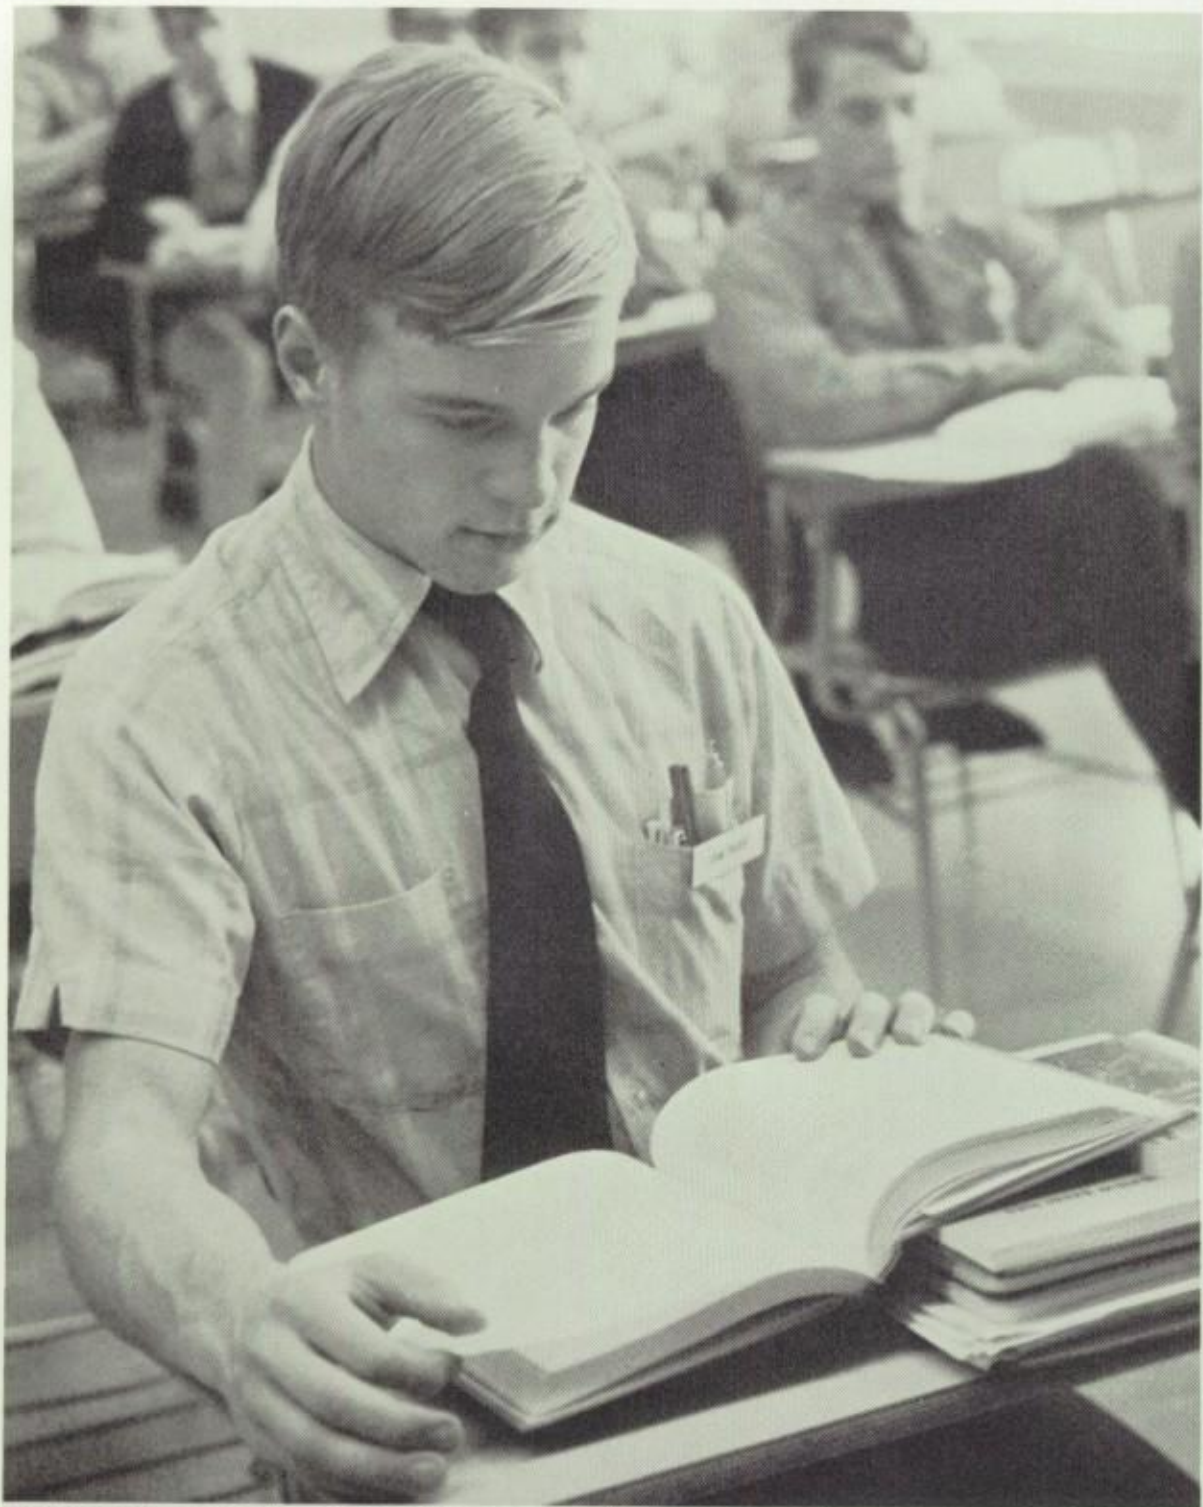

"This is for the birds."

"And now with the sports . . ."

"Do we get a last request?"

1971 PLAINSMAN STAFF

STANDING: Michael Hepburn; David Yates. SEATED: Jay Drabik; Thomas Gunnell, Sports Editor; Thomas Kemp, Editor-in-Chief; Br. Donnell Neary, Moderator; James Suchinski, Activities Editor. Missing: John Schwab; William Byrnes; Martin Terpstra; Kevin Phelan; Patrick Murphy.

The task of creating a yearbook is greater than most people realize. Long hours, rough deadlines, and necessary skill are an integral part of the yearbook activity. Yet, when one views the finished product, he realizes that the effort was well worth it. The success of our yearbook lies in the memories which it will later bring. I personally wish to thank and commend the staff in their sincere efforts toward the completion of the 1971 PLAINSMAN.

Thomas P. Kemp

Thomas Kemp,
Editor-in-Chief

There are several individuals and groups within the school community which in some way, directly or indirectly, lend invaluable assistance in the production of the yearbook. I would like to take this opportunity to express thanks to some of these.

To the administration and faculty of Marist for their generous cooperation and patience.

To Brother Vincent Colella and the photo club who supplied most of the pictures used in this year's book.

To the photographers and representatives of Walinger Studio for their fine service.

To Brother Vincent Andiorio for his services as yearbook consultant.

Finally, I would like to mention the long hours and dedicated work of the staff of the 1971 PLAINSMAN. It was their efforts which made this year's book a reality.

Brother Donnell Neary, FMS
Moderator
